

McCawley Award Nomination Form

James Q. McCawley was born in 1899 in Glasgow, Scotland, and came from a family intimately connected with the roofing industry. He dedicated his life to the advancement of the roofing industry in innumerable ways. In recognition of his devotion to the industry, the Midwest Roofing Contractors Association® established the James Q. McCawley Award. This award, first presented in 1969, has been presented each year to an individual in recognition for outstanding service to the roofing industry.

Nominees are not restricted to owners/officers of roofing firm and are not restricted to individuals located within the geographical area of MRCA. In addition to owners/officers of roofing firms, nominees can be, but are not limited to those connected with associate member firms; employees; association staff; architects, engineers, attorneys; legislators.

Please complete the following information about the person you would like to nominate to receive the James Q. McCawley Award. Complete and accurate information will help the selection committee in making its determination and will likewise assist your nominee in receiving appropriate consideration. Please provide a high resolution (JPG) photo of the nominee.

Nominee _____

Company Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ ZIP _____

Phone _____ E-mail _____

Describe the nominee's service to the roofing industry:

Letters of Recommendation:

Nominations are to include at least three letters of recommendation. Attach these letters with the nomination form.

Submitted by _____ Company* _____

*Nominations must be made by an MRCA Member in good standing

Phone _____ E-mail _____

Deadline - October 1, 2016

E-mail this nomination form and photo to Megan Miller at mmiller@mrca.org

or mail your nomination form and photo to:

MRCA - McCawley Award
2077 Embury Park Road
Dayton, OH 45414